LET’S ALL DO THE HASTINGS HULLABALOO!

YELP for HELP

Due to sporting grand-finals, changes to family plans and sickness we are sending out an urgent YELP for HELP for next Saturday’s Hastings Hullabaloo. Many of the parents and friends who had put their name down on a roster now find they are unavailable for the early shift or not at all.

PLEASE - PLEASE - PLEASE
PUT YOUR HAND UP IF YOU CAN HELP and TOGETHER MAKE THIS THE BIGGEST & BEST HULLABALOO

Money raised at the fete comes back into the school to help all students and families.
RAFFLES
Among the many fantastic contributions to our fete next week, special mention must be made of Sue Richardson, grandmother of Sean and Charlie Cochrane. Sue has created the magnificent quilt (pictured) that will be raffled at the fete. On the reverse side is the Dr Seuss alphabet. Tickets are $1 and available at the office and on the day. This would be an excellent addition to any home. Each panel of the quilt comes from the book “My Alphabet Quilt” which is included as part of the prize. Raffle books were also sent home last week for our Main Raffle giving you a chance of winning one of three great prizes.

And in case you need help, Environment Minister, Matilda Lindeman and a group of Year 6 students will be on duty advising what goes where! Families are also asked to bring along a cloth supermarket bag to take home their purchases instead of a plastic bag.

GECKO VOUCHERS
Pre-orders for Gecko vouchers close on Wednesday. This is to give P&C time to get them back to your child by Friday. Vouchers will also be on sale for a short time (10am to 10:30am) on Fete Day so best to order one now. Geckos are $5.00 each and gives you $6.40 worth of fun!

FATHER’S DAY STALL
Servicing our 664 students in a morning is no mean feat so it’s a big thank you to our five marvellous mothers who ensured the Fathers Day stall on Wednesday flowed along well. Thanks to Ros Brockhouse, Xanthe Burke, Michelle Jordan, Joanne McNamara and Naomi Turner.

EDUCATIONAL APP
The Department of Education has created a free app for busy parents who may want to do more to help their child or children at school. All details may be found at:

LOOM BANDS
In the holidays, Miss Bourne and Mrs Barker are heading over to Indonesia to visit our sister school in Medan, North Sumatra. As a gift from our school to their school in Medan and from our students to theirs, we would like to take some Hastings coloured loom band bracelets and multi-coloured longer lengths to teach the students "elastics".
If you have bands or kits that you no longer use and you would like to donate them to the school they can be taken to Mrs Barker in room 19 as her class will be making them in the coming weeks. Alternatively, you can donate completed loom band bracelets in Hastings colours and/or multi-coloured “elastics” also to Room 19.

SCHUBERT’S 7S RUGBY LEAGUE
This week the Hastings Rugby League teams represented our school at the Schubert’s 7 a side competition at Stuart’s Park. We fielded three teams on the day that showed great determination, sportsmanship and team work. We were very competitive in all our games with close scores in all matches. In the end, we were knocked out of the semi-final by St Josephs, Wauchope who went on to win the carnival. The team would like to thank Mr Jordan for his time and support in training the boys and attending the carnival. Many thanks also to all the families who cheered our boys on the day.

APOLOGIES
Last week we announced Zara McCrohon was one of the winners in the fete colouring-in competition. This should have read Zara Dennis (KM) as the Kindergarten winner. Apologies to Zara! Both girls have received a fete Gecko voucher.
